

Guard of Honor

A guard of honor was formed by the 1st Melbourne Company of the Boys' Brigade at the Baptist Church, Armadale, where the marriage of Edna Doreen, only daughter of Mrs. M. T. Robertson, Bonbeach, and Mr. Lindsay William Harwood, Captain of the Brigade, was celebrated by Rev. Wesley J. Bligh. The bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Harwood, Armadale.

The bride, who is the registrar of the Melbourne Benevolent Asylum was given away by the superintendent (Paymaster Lieut. Commander W. H. Brown, R.A.N., retired). She carried a trailer bouquet of azaleas and hyacinths against her gown of heavy white satin, and her veil was held in place by orange blossom. Her attendants were Mrs. K. Kohlman and Miss Lois Peagram. A reception was held at Central Park Kiosk.
