

Our Full Church Budget

BAPTIST

Tonight, at 7.30 p.m., the Church Prayer meeting will be held at the Manse, 16 Doherty. The growth in numbers at these meetings has increased to the benefit of them. A short Bible study in "The Acts of the Apostles" will be incorporated each week.

The Boys' Brigade meets each Friday evening at 7 p.m. Boys desiring to join may contact the leader at the hall every Friday evening.

Attention is drawn to a series of meetings in the Moe Baptist Church, commencing Friday night at 8 p.m. The speaker will be Mr. John Robinson, of Campaigners for Christ, Melbourne. A team from Morwell will join with Moe for tea on Saturday, and afterwards in an open air witness.

Next Sunday's services will include Communion at the morning service, and a Bible study from Paul's letter to the Galatians, entitled "Compromising the Gospel". The film - serial at Sunday School will commence a new theme, while the Gospel service at 7.30 p.m., the subject will be "Trifling with Sin". This evening service will be preceded by a prayer group at 6.45.

With the approach of November, attention is drawn to the Annual Home Mission Appeal. It is not merely a financial appeal, but also a call to prayer and personal dedication. To prepare for this special appeal, a week of prayer will commence next Monday at 7 a.m., including meetings each morning at that time, together with those usually held during each week. As previously with these early

As previously with these early morning meetings, "come when you can, go when you must". A display of interest in connection with Home Missions is planned for some time during the month.

Christian Endeavourers are reminded of the Consecration meeting next Tuesday evening.

that due preparation be made. It will be held at the manse.
