

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Memorial services for the late Prime Minister will be held throughout Australia to-morrow. In Melbourne, city churches have arranged special commemoration services.

The Governor (Sir Winston Dugan) and Lady Dugan will attend an afternoon service at St. Paul's Cathedral, to be conducted by Archbishop Booth. The Leader of the State Parliamentary Labor party (Mr. Cain) has also intimated his intention to be present. At Scots Church, the Moderator-General (Rt. Rev. Dr. R. Wilson Macaulay) will deliver a morning address, and the State Moderator (Rt. Rev. E. H. McLean Shugg) will take part. Rev. Dr. C. Irving Benson will pay a special tribute at the Wesley Church P.S.A., and Rev. J. Arthur Lewis will conduct a service at Collins-street Baptist Church in the morning. Evening memorial services will be held at all Salvation Army corps.

The annual service in commemoration of U.S. Independence day will be held to-morrow evening in the Armadale Baptist church. The American Consul-General (Mr. C. J. Spiker) and members of the American Legation and the U.S. Army will attend. Representatives of the Federal and State Governments, the Baptist Union of Victoria, the National Missionary Council, the Australian Legion of Ex-Servicemen and Women, and the mayor and councillors of Malvern will also be present. There will be a ceremonial parade of the color by the 1st Melbourne Company of the Boys' Brigade. Rev. Wesley J. Bligh will be the preacher.

Archbishop Mannix will be present at a Communion breakfast at Box Hill to-morrow morning, and he will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation at Sunshine in the afternoon.

Bishop Ashton will preside at the annual conference of Sunday school teachers of the diocese of Melbourne at Christ Church Hall, South Yarra, this afternoon. The speaker will be Rev. W. Potter.

Rev. M. D. Forrest will deliver a lecture on the Crucifixion of Poland in St. John's Hall, Clifton Hill, to-morrow evening.

At Christian Science services to be held in Melbourne to-morrow the subject of the lesson-sermon will be Sacrament. Golden text, I. Corinthians 11: 26.
