

Boys' Brigade Anniversary

The 1st Melbourne Company of the Boys' Brigade, which is attached to Armadale Baptist Church, will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a display at Malvern town hall next Wednesday at 8 p.m., when the company will be inspected by the mayor of Malvern (Cr. Johnson).

Celebrations will continue with a jubilee church parade at 11 a.m. on December 6, at Armadale Baptist Church, when Rev. Wesley J. Bligh, chaplain to the company, will preach.

There are 25 boys, aged from 12 to 18, and five officers, in the company. Since it was formed, 250 boys have passed through it, and any of these who can attend have been invited to the celebrations.
