

TWO OTHER LOCAL HEROES.

Equally distressing intelligence has reached the relatives of Corporal David Thompson Allan and Private Robert Lawson. The former is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Allan, of Twyford-street. His father is landscape gardener to the Railway Department. Prior to enlisting he graduated at Dookie Agricultural College, getting his diploma, and later obtained a position in the Department of Agriculture as an inspector. He was 22 years of age. Corporal Allan was a prominent member of the original Presbyterian Boys' Naval Brigade, 40 of whom are on active service. He was a member of C. Co., 14th Battalion, 4th Infantry Brigade.

Equal sympathy can be felt for the father and aunt of Private Robert Lawson, who reside in Twyford-street. He went down in the Gaba Tebe fighting, and as a boy had learned his initial rudiments of warfare with the Boys' Naval Brigade. Young Lawson at the period of enlistment joined at Echuca. His father is an employe of the Newport Workshops. Robert, who was about 21 years of age, was educated at the Central State school. His mother pre-deceased him. He was a member of H. Co., 7th Battalion, 2nd Infantry Brigade.
