

HONOR ROLLS UNVEILED

Two Honor Rolls were unveiled in the Augustine Congregational Church, Hawthorn, at a patriotic service in connection with the Sunday School Anniversary on May 12. One is in honor of those who have enlisted. It was presented by Mr and Mrs J.

H. Kerr, members of the church, whose four sons are serving, and was unveiled by Chaplain-Colonel C. Davies. The other is in memory of members of the Hawthorn Boys' Naval Brigade, who have enlisted. It was unveiled by Mr John Cameron, the founder of the Boys' Brigade in Victoria, and was designed and presented to the Church by Mr Robert Cochrane, the Superintendent and promoter of the Augustine branch of the Brigade. Chaplain-Major E. L. Watson gave an appropriate address, and the scholars, conducted by Mr T. U. Groube, sang suitable hymns.
