

PORTRAIT UNVEILED.

—The Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Victoria, Rev. Thomas Brown, presided over a large assembly to do honour to the late Mr. John Cameron, on Sunday, 24th March, when Mr. Geer, superintendent, spoke of many reminiscences, and his connection with Mr. Cameron in the Cecil-street church and Sunday school.

Mr. F. Henderson, before unveiling the portrait of Mr. Cameron, called to mind the many things Mr. Cameron had done for the advancement of the youth of this city, and the Presbyterian Church in particular. He had been scholar, teacher and superintendent, and was instrumental in organising and carrying on, before compulsory training, the Boys' Naval Brigade, in connection with the Metropolitan Presbyterian Churches, the good of which many young men who passed through this organisation could testify.

Mr. Cameron needed no further monument in Williamstown, for the building in which they met that afternoon was a monument to his zeal and energy, for it was mainly through his efforts that the school hall was built.

The inscription on the photo. is:—
"John Cameron. For over 30 years connected with this Sunday school, as scholar, officer, teacher and superintendent."
